PROFESSIONAL AND EXPERIENCED:

I have nine years of work experience in both the State Senate and the House of Representatives. Currently I am the Aide to 20 Republican legislators of the State House of Representatives. I have also worked in the private sector as an Executive Assistant to the Secretary General of the Pacific Basin Economic Council (PBEC), an association of senior business executives from throughout Asia and the Pacific, dedicated to expanding trade and investment and addressing emerging issues likely to shape global economies.

EDUCATION:

I am the product of both public and private schools here in Hawaii:

- Benjamin Parker Elementary School
- St. Andrew's Priory School for Girls
- University of Hawaii at Manoa - B.A. Political Science and International Relations

FAMILY VALUES:

I am the daughter of Herb and Itsuko Terri. My father is a retired firefighter (HFD) and ex-police officer (HPD) and my mother was born and raised in Japan. Together they raised me to value a good education, hard work, determination, and perseverance.

MY MOTIVATION:

Equipped with these values, my upbringing, education, and professional experience, I strongly believe I am obligated to participate in this upcoming election, which represents our one opportunity to witness and effectuate positive changes long overdue. It's our ideas and solutions that will chart a new course for our State and bring about a new beginning, a brighter tomorrow, and a better life for us all. We deserve nothing less, and I am determined to do my part.
